ACTION INVITED

- All Religious Education teachers need to be on the Religious Education Certification track.
- All other teachers need to be on the Special Character track.
- Certification is provided after appropriate professional development and a certain number of hours of classroom experience.
- The principal and the DRS have information. You can also talk to the diocesan Religious Education advisor.
- The Certification Handbook is available at www.faithcentral.net.nz (under Administration) or www.ncrs.org.nz (pick up the link to Faith Central, then go to Administration).
